Revolutionary Troubles Near the Capital Subdding-A Traitor to be Tried for Treaon-Rosecrans' Mexican Improvement Scheme-The Tehuantepee Canal Bill-The Singles Disturbances - Attempt to Will the Rebel General Cadena - Impositions on Foreign Morchants.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 11, 1870. We are giad to unnounce the apparent end of the revolutionary troubles in our immediate vicinity, and are only anxious about the dark cloud which it is aid is threatening the upper States on the Pacific not yet known except to the few, although it is quite cortain that Vega has suddenly proven to his enemies est his friends are still numerous. Vague whispers m San Francisco are passing about, more reliable brunation in regard to which you may have learned idad Garcia, member of Congress from Zaceicas, has arrived here under a strong escort, and will be tried for treason. Abraham Plata, the disuished bandit who gave himself up to the au-ities, is also here awaiting trial. Costo Pontones, rhose death was chronicle! some time since, is live and well in the State of Morella. The address eral Resecrans to the Congress of the United tes upon the condition of Mexico and the means uld be adopted to improve the same has ent. The railroad projects suggested by the have not yet been acted upon by Congress, and that honorable body has so far only frittered away its time. The Tehuantepec Canal bill has up in detail. No one knows the result santa Anna has not yet been executed. He has been brought to Puebla and imprisoned preparatory to his trial, which will take place soon direction and orders of General Allatorre, anding the Eastern division. The law was d yesterday by a vote of 95 to 32, in conformity commanding the Eistern division. The law was passed yesterday by a vote of 95 to 32, in conformity with the petition of the President, granting an extension for one year of the law suspending the habeas corpus, under which so many highwaymen and kidnappers have been executed the past year. The most alarming intelligence continues to reach us of the condition of things in Sinaioa. Placido Vega is rumored to have a large army of revolutionists at his command, and to have captured Mazailan, with a large amount of treasure found there awaiting shipment. Governor Rubl is said to have fled for his life, but it is probable, if there happened to be a vessel in port, that he put some of the treasure on board and left with it for Acapuleo to save it from Vega. Strange rumors are again affoct of the union of Martinez, Canales, Vega, Lozada and others for the formation of a northern confederacy to be called the "Confederacy of the Bierra Madre." Of this more hereafter.

To-morrow is the anniversary of the horrid butchery of the surgeons at Tucubaya. Due solemnities are being prepared. It will be remembered that among their number were one or two American physicians and surgeons. News reached here last evening that the silver conducts which left San Luis Potosi this week for Tampico for shipment by the English steamer on the last of April, had been compelled to turn back to San Luis, after being on the road one day, in consequence of the information having been received by the officers in command of the escort that the rebel General Pedro Martinez was erganizing and disposing his forces so as to capture the treasure, who is also said to be operating now in conjunction with Canales of the State of Tamaulipas. The rumor was current in the streets last evening that the stroops of the government had captured Norlega and Batanzas in the afternoon of yesterday, and that they were immediately shot—but needs confirmation. The following statement, which has appeared in the press of this city, also needs confirmation, viz., that upon time to make their combinations for the capture of the silver.

General Escobedo, who has been here several days, is going through a course of dining and wining. It is stated that General Diaz, who was elected a member of Congress, will present himself with his credentals soon. He has heretofore declined to do so, remaining upon his little farm in Oaxaca.

Mr. Schlotzen, representative of the North German Confederation at this capital, it will be remembered, has gone home to secure the confirmation of the treaty recently signed by himself on behalf of the nation he represents, and Mr. Lerdo de Tejads in behalf of Mexico. The Revisia has published the entire treaty, and makes the comment upon it "that it contains some clauses in open contradiction with several treation and declarations of the Prussian government."

Seven nice young Mexicans have just been arrested here for counterfeiting coins. Among their alims was that of manufacturing American $20 gold pieces.
They have been provided with quarters in the public prison and await trial. A very good imitation of United States $2.50 pieces have appeared here.
The local and State governments in various parts of the republic are resorting to what is called, in polite language here, voluntary contributions. I forward a brief letter, which was sent to one of the papers of this capital lately, which shows up this system of robbery of foreign merchants, which is in violation of treaties:—

Guadalara, Aprill, 1870.

I see that you have taken no notice of the high handed outrage committed upon our worthy American fellow resident, Mr. Newton, during last month. The irregularities and disorderly condition of things were no exense, because the even tenor of the government was not disturbed in this city. Mr. Newton was not notified to attend the meeting of merchants and besides, if he had been, there is no lawful recourse to compel him to be present. When he was called upon to contribute $2,000 he told the parties that he never paid forced loans." The reply was that it was a voluntary foan made up by the merchants and worth the paper and would not suffer such as externed and the paper and would not suffer such as externed and or sign the paper and would not suffer such as externed and not suffer such as externed and contribute and that he must pay the $2,000 or his goods wonst because the sum of the GUADALAJARA, April 1, 1870. George Peabody's Will.—A statement has been extensively published, occasioned by the probate of Mr. George Peabody's wil at Gloucester has week, to the effect that Mr. Peabody leit only about $150,000, after the payment of his public bequests to the London poor. We learn from good anthority that the $150,000 is merely the amount or personal property belonging to his estate in Essex county; it being necessary to prove the will have, as also in some other States, where there are funds or securities belonging to the estate. But, as we supposed was already well known, the greater portion of his property was leit in Singland, where his will was originally proved in December last, and where the administration of the estate is principally to be carried on for the present. The amount of personal property returned to the court in England is about four hundred thousand pounds, not far from two and a quarter millions of dollars in currency. The whole amount in this country is hot yet made public, as the executors have not jet taken out letters in other States.—

Salem (Mass.) Obserper, April 23.

AMERICAN SILVER IN CANADA.—The Silver Coin proclamation is now in force in Canada, causing a depreciation of twenty per cent in the value or silver coin. To prevent too great a loss the government will receive to a very large amount silver at a discount of only five per cent. The Montreal Telegraph Company offers to take American money at forty-eight cents for the half dollar, twenty-four cents for quarters, dimes for nine cents and half dimes for four cents. This company violates the provisions of the proclamation in some important respects and also a statute. It advertises the rates at which it will receive American and British silver, and it sets a less value on British silver than that prescribed by law.

STOCKS EXCITED, ACTIVE AND STRONG.

The speculative activity of Wall street was still more decided to-day, and the transactions at the boards, as will be seen by the published lists of sales below, have been up to the briskest standard of business. The dealings in the Long Room were on an enormous scale, and equat in amount to those of the palmy days of the spring and summer of last year before the great September panic cut short the dream of sudden wealth to be acquired through the vehicle of gold and stock speculation. The feature of to-day's operations was a general buying movement on the part of the cliques themselves. Usually it is the clique practice to run prices up and down in the process of doubling the prefits of an undertaking. But to-day the cliques, who are working in perfect harmony, decided to advance their lines in place of realizing. Hence, when at the top of to-day's quotations the smaller holders of stock sold out to take profits, and the "bears" sprang in and sold a great deal of "short" stock, the "bulls" bought sold a great deal of "short" stock, the "bulls" bought all that was offered and prices recovered to their have been the subject of their remarkably successful manipulation. It is the deliberate policy of the "bulls" to put the market uttermost extent of advanced prices, and in pursuance of this intention they are calling up the differences" from the "shorts" as fast as prices go up, and with the money thus raised are buying more stock, while the enhanced quotations for the stocks hypothecated with the banks and bankers enable them to increase the amounts of loans. Their power tremely limited were the money market other than abundantly supplied with funds available on call. The banks are threatened with an unusual accumulation of national bank notes, and are only too willing to employ their resources in loans upon stock collaterals. It is true they may not do this openly, but they do so indirectly by the methods which are so well known in Wall street. The movements of to-day have thus drawn in an entirely new line of "shorts," upon whose overselling the cliques base their intention of making "corners" in every stock possible. The scheme contemplates a slow and steady advance from to-day, the "bears" being called on to send in their checks for the differences each time the market rises two or three per cent. It will be remembered that the "bulls" in gold practised this strategy last fall in putting gold to 165. It would be difficult to specify which was the feature in the activity of to-day, for the movement was so general in the leading rallways that when attention had been excited by a sharp advance it was soon diverted to an equally a sharp advance it was soon diverted to an equally surprising advance in another stock. The railways were more active than the miscellaneous or express shares, but the latter participated in the general buoyancy to a greater or less extent. The list below of highest and lowest prices will show the width of fluctuations, the lowest quotations being made at about the beginning of business and the highest at the last session of the Board, excepting for Ohio and Mississippi, which individually became most active in late street dealings and touched $33\%. Eric alone in this general advance was weak, in sympany with a decline in London, and yielded to 24, although it closed up firmer. New Jersey Central was heavy and irregular, but seems to show the usual signs of manipulation for a sharp rise. In the miscellaneous shares Pacific Mail sold at 39. GOVERNMENTS STRONG AND ACTIVE.
The case in money, the Washington announce

The ease in money, the Washington announcement that the Ways and Means Committee had agreed to do nothing with the Senate Funding bill and the general activity led to a snarp advance in the gov-ernment list, where prices closed a full one per cent higher than at the close on Saturday. With reference to the Funding bill, it is now definitely known that the Senate bill will not emerge from the House Committee—a fate which we prophesied for it when we learned the extensive hostile force brought to bear against it by the national banks. The House Committee have in contemplation an entirely new bill which, even if intro-duced—and on the latter contingency there is much doubt, as the funding business has been so muddled that Congress will probably decide to let the whole matter go over until next session-would meet with certain defeat in the Senate, in retaliation for the House's action on the original bill. The following were the final street quotations for the government list:—United States currency sixes, H2½ a 112½; do., 1881, registered, 115 a 115½; do. do., coupon, 115½ a 115½; do. five-twenties, registered, May and November, 108 a 108%; do., 1862, coupon, do., 113% a 114; do. do., 1864, do. do., 112% a 112%; do. do., 1865, do. do., 1864, do. do., 1865, do. do., 112% a 113; do. do., 1865, do. do., 111% a 111%; do. do., 1867, do. do., 111% a 111%; do. do., 1868, do. do., 111% a 111%; do. do., 1868, do. do., 111% a 111%; do. ten-forties, registered, 106% a 106%; do. do., coupon, 106% a 107.

THE GOLD MARKET STRONG.

The dealings in the Gold Room were without excitement, and the market at times relapsed into dulness. The extreme ductuation in the price was from 113% a 113%, the latter point being touched on the receipt of despatches from Washington confirmatory of the previously announced intentions of the Ways and Means Committee regarding the Funding bill.

The higher quotable out sales on speculative account, the disbursements of the Sub-Treasury in payoff the May interest on the public desir sense. tions brought out sales on speculative account, while the disbursements of the Sub-Treasury in payment of the May interest on the public debt rendered the market heavy, and a decline to 113% ensued late in the afternoon. Afterward the clique were purchasers and the market closed strong at 113% a 113%. The course of the market is shown in Holders of gold had their balances carried for rates ranging from one to four per cent. The operations of the Gold Exchange Bank were as follows:-

The money marke: was easy at four to five per cent on governments and at five to six per cent on stocks. With the abundant offerings of the banks and the present plethora of idle capital in the hands of privale bankers, rates would doubless have yielded to three to five per cent had not the increased demand for money arising out of the ex-pansion of business at the Stock Exchange checked the tendency to a decline. Commercial paper was current at 6½ to 7½ per cent for prime louble name acceptances, and at 7 to 15 per cent for single names. Foreign exchange was steady on the bases of 109% for prime bankers' sixty day sterling and 100% for sight bills. The market shows a very firm undertone, and the foreign bankers are disposed to buy in order to cover remittances against the May coupons of the five-twenties held in Europe. THE SPECIE MOVEMENT. AREMARABLE COLORED GENIUS.

[From the Lexington (Ky.) Gazette.]

At the ast meeting of Lexington Presbytery, sitting in Versalites, a negro applied for itecase to preach, and it was accorded to him, but not until after a most searching examination, during which he showed himself familiar with Heorew. Greek and Latin, and all the text books required to be saudted by Presoyterian theological students. The negro is a singular compound of physical deformity and mental activity, being dwaried and distorted in body to a degree almost painful to look upon, and with a very large head, out of all proportion to the rest of als person. He is a reputed son of the great lawyer and orator, S. S. Prontess, at one time member of Congress from Mississippl, where he was looked upon as a perfect pichigy of eloquence and mental attainment. This son of his seems to possess his father's peculiarities in an exaggerated degree, and may yet prove as marvellous in mind as distorted in body. His appearance so prejudical the members of the Presbytery against him that they would have reflaxed him a license if he had shown any deficiency. He was required to deliver a sermon of his own composition, and the mather of it was not only good, out the manner of delivery was composed and admirable. We have not heard to what field he has been called.

"DIS AM DE CULLUB GALLERY."—A Washington correspondent of the Louisville Commercial is responsible for the following:—A framy incident is responsible for the following:—A framy incident is tool about Coinnet Caener, a California pointician, going to hear the Parepa troupe perform "The Marriage of Figaro." Finding the lower part of the bouse crowded to suffocation, Chency, rather than miss the music, went up into the unknown regions and scated minself in that part of the gallery appropriated to the sons and daughters of Africa. Just as he was becoming enraptured by the sweet comoord he felt a light tap on the shoulder, accompanied by "Dis am de cullud gallery," from a subject attendant. "S—h: All right," said the Californian, and again directed his entire attention to the single, where Parepa was waroling like a robin. "But dis am de cullud gallery," interposed the black tormentor. "All right, I know h. I'd as soon be here as anywhere," said the placid Cheney, "But it am not all right. Dis am de cullud gallery, and you can't stay here," persisted the attendant," and Cheney had to clamber around and take a back seat among the "white trash" on the other side. A venerable darky, who had been a wondering spectator of the scene, exclaimed, "lot' bless us now, an' de filteenth 'mendment, too; I wouldn't a b'leeved mars Blair's Saul' nd live to see the day a nigger's better'n a white man."
